Camp Guidelines:

- Age Limits
All campers must be the appropriate age before the start of their camp session.
- What to Bring/Winter Gear
Campers will spend their time both indoors and outdoors during the camp programs. Your child should wear clothes that are comfortable for indoor activities and hands-on, occasionally messy fun. Campers should also plan to bring their outdoor winter clothing including: boots, snow pants, jacket, hat, mittens and scarf. We strongly recommend that campers bring a water bottle to stay well hydrated. Campers may wish to bring a backpack to carry extra clothing and take projects home.
- Weather
Camp GBBG utilizes the natural environment of the Garden as much as possible during each session. Your child will spend the camp day both indoors and outdoors when weather permits. Please send campers with the appropriate clothing and winter gear depending on the weather forecast.
- Snack
We provide a healthy, peanut-free snack for all camp attendees. If your child has food allergies, please make us aware upon registration. We regret that we are unable to provide special snacks; if your child has food allergies that may prevent him from consuming the provided snack, please pack an alternative.
- Lunch (full-day camps only)

Please send a peanut-free lunch for your child that does not require refrigeration. Campers will eat lunch together during our supervised lunch break.

- Special Health Needs

If your child has special health needs please make us aware upon registration. It is the parent's responsibility to provide all necessary information to the Garden prior to your child attending camp.

- Accessibility

GBBG's Visitors' Center and most of the grounds are ADA-compliant. Handicapped parking spaces are available in the parking lot.

- Staffing

In order to provide the best possible experiences for your children, all camps are limited to 20 campers. Camps are led by Green Bay Botanical Garden staff with assistance from interns and volunteers. Please plan to register early.
