(Green Bay, WI) (May 25, 2019) – Garden Fair returns to Green Bay Botanical Garden this May as a local, community plant and gardening sale. This free event will feature a variety of plants, garden art and other supplies from vendors in the northeast Wisconsin community, and give plant lovers a chance to talk to gardening and landscape experts. There will be something for every style and level of gardener to enjoy.

Event Details

Friday, May 31 | 12–7 pm

Saturday, June 1 | 8 am–2 pm

Free admission into the fair located in the parking lot, half-off admission into the Garden

A variety of selections from local plant professionals will be available and will feature:

- Annuals
- Perennials
- Containers
- Hanging baskets
- Succulents
- Gardening supplies
- Landscape design services
- Handcrafted garden art
- Specialized plants recommended by our Garden team

Guests should plan to bring their own cartons, wagons or boxes for carrying purchased plants. Boxes will not be provided.

The Garden will offer free plant pick-up to make shopping at the fair easy and to give guests an opportunity to enjoy the Garden itself while they're here. Purchases can be dropped off with Garden volunteers who will hold them until guests are ready to head out. With half-off admission into the Garden, it will be the perfect time for guests to stroll among stunning spring and summer blooms, and also experience our summer exhibit, Butterflies & Blooms, which opens on Saturday, June 1.

Ask the Experts

American Transmission Company's Grow Smart program presents "Ask the Plant Doctor," a Q&A with Melinda Myers, at Garden Fair. Nationally known gardening expert, TV/radio host, author and columnist, Melinda has over 30 years of horticulture experience and has written over 20 gardening books. Melinda will be available to talk to guests about all things gardening during both days of the fair.

Green Bay Botanical Garden horticulturists, local garden experts and plant professionals will also be on hand to answer all your gardening questions.

About Green Bay Botanical Garden

Green Bay Botanical Garden is a 100-percent, community-supported nonprofit organization that connects people with plants in an environment that engages, inspires and refreshes. First opened in 1996 and now featuring 47-acres of display gardens and natural areas, the Garden touches the lives of more than 180,000 visitors annually from northeast Wisconsin and beyond. This summer, the Garden will welcome its first butterfly exhibit, Butterflies & Blooms, featuring more than 20 native butterfly species and the plants they love. For more information about other spring happenings, visit www.GBBG.org or call 920.490.9457.
