Camp Guidelines:

- Age Limits
All campers must be the appropriate age before the start of their camp session.
- What to Bring
Campers will spend their time both indoors and outdoors during camp programs. Your child should wear clothes that are comfortable for indoor activities and hands-on, occasionally messy fun. We strongly recommend that campers bring a water bottle to stay well hydrated. Campers may wish to bring a backpack to carry extra clothing and take projects home.
- Weather

Camp GBBG utilizes the natural environment of the Garden as much as possible during each session. Your child will spend the camp day both indoors and outdoors when weather permits. Please send campers with the appropriate clothing depending on the weather forecast.

- Snack
We provide a healthy, peanut-free snack for all camp attendees. If your child has food allergies, please make us aware upon registration. We regret that we are unable to provide special snacks; if your child has food allergies that may prevent him from consuming the provided snack, please pack an alternative.
- Lunch (full-day camps only, does not apply to KIDchen campers)
Please send a peanut-free lunch for your child that does not require refrigeration. Campers will eat lunch together during our supervised lunch break.
KIDchen campers need not bring a lunch as they will be preparing a meal as part of the program.
- Special Health Needs
If your child has special health needs, please make us aware upon registration. It is the parent's responsibility to provide all necessary information to the Garden prior to your child attending camp.
- Accessibility
GBBG's Fischer Visitor Center and most of the grounds are ADA-compliant. Handicapped parking spaces are available in the parking lot.
- Staffing
In order to provide the best possible experiences for your children, outdoor camps are limited to 20 campers, while cooking camps have a limit of 10 campers. Camps are led by Green Bay Botanical Garden staff with assistance from interns and volunteers. Please plan to register early.

Parent Information:

- Medical & Consent Forms
Please complete the Camp GBBG Medical & Consent Form and return with your registration. These forms are used in an emergency and to identify any special needs such as allergies and asthma, as well as to identify who is authorized to pick your child up from camp.
- Photo Release
By registering for Camp GBBG, parents/guardians consent that children may be photographed and that the photos may be used in future Green Bay Botanical Garden publications and promotions. Please check the photo consent portion on the Medical & Consent Form.
- Drop Off / Pick-Up
Campers should arrive at the Fischer Visitor Center 10-15 minutes prior to the start of camp. Groups will leave the Fischer Visitor Center promptly at 9:30 am each day.
