Stitches & Stems Exhibit at Green Bay Botanical Garden This Weekend

More Than 200 Fiber and Embroidery Art Pieces on Display

(GREEN BAY, WI) (March 24, 2022) — With cooler weather returning this weekend, guests of the Garden are invited to check out Stitches & Stems, a two-day exhibit starting this Friday, March 25 featuring more than 200 fiber art and embroidery pieces created by and presented in partnership with Women Who Run With Scissors and Green Bay Area Embroiders' Guild of America.

The exhibit is free to everyone and will be located in the Schneider Education Center, with a purchase of daily admission required to walk through the Garden. Beautifully designed and hand-embroidered pieces and art quilts will be on display along with the following:

- boutiques (small items for sale made by members)
- a silent auction featuring completed works to bid on to support their programs
- fabulous finds (rummage sale items)
- raffle baskets, raffle quilts, and more.

Members of both groups will be on hand to answer guests' questions during the exhibit.
